

ASSESSING CONSEQUENCES

List drawn up by Mr Bogue

1. As a result, we can assume that...

2. This will result in the fact that...

an increase in...

3. This results

from a decrease in...

an impression of...

4. This leads

5. This caused

the viewer
the reader
the public the audience people to believe...

think...
imagine...

6. This touched off

7. This triggered off

a series of...
a spate of...

PERMISSION

1. You may / can do this.

2. You'll be allowed to come in.

3. She has the right to do this.

4. He is entitled to park here.

5. She let him use her car.

6. He was given the go-ahead *.

INTERDICTION

7. You may not / can't do it.

8. He won't be able to do it.

9. She has no right to do such a thing.

10. He isn't entitled to park here.

11. She didn't let him use her car.

12. He didn't get the green light. *

PARALLEL INCREASE

1. The more you sell, the cheaper you can sell.

2. The fewer Ferraris they make, the more easily they will sell them.

3. The bigger the demand is, the higher the prices get.

4. The more you look at it, the more difficult the problem seems to be.

5. The problem gets more and more difficult as you look at it.

6. Prices tend to get higher and higher over the years.