

Last drawn up by Mr Bogue

RELATIVES

	SUBJECT	OBJECT	POSSESSIVE
thing	The car which made this noise...	The car which that Ø I use...	The house whose roof is red...
person	The man who made this noise...	The man who(m) that Ø I met...	The man whose car is blue...
1. What worries me is that she smokes too much. 2. She smokes too much, which worries me. 3. His girl-friend, who lives in New-York, is a pain. * 4. His girl-friend who lives in New-York is a pain. **

* the relative suggests that he has one girl-friend who is a pain and lives in New-York.
 ** the relative suggests that he has several girl-friends, but only the one in NY is a pain.

POSSESSIVE CASE

- |                               |  |                                     |
|-------------------------------|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1. The car of the man         |  | 1. The man's car                    |
| 2. The car belonging to James |  | 2. James's car                      |
| 3. The car of his parents     |  | 3. His parents' car                 |
| 4. The strength of Hercules   |  | 4. Hercules' strength               |
| 5. The keys of the car        |  | 5. The car Ø keys (car → adjective) |
6. today's work
 7. in an hour's time
 8. last year's race
 9. yesterday's party

QUANTITY

UNCOUNTABLE

COUNTABLE

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. Is there any butter left?            | 9. Are there any eggs left?              |
| 2. There is some butter left.           | 10. There are some eggs left.            |
| 3. There is a little butter left.       | 11. There are a few eggs left.           |
| 4. There is (very) little butter left.  | 12. There are (very) few eggs left.      |
| 5. There is less butter than I thought. | 13. There are fewer eggs than I thought. |
| 6. There isn't much butter left.        | 14. There are many eggs left.            |
| 7. There isn't any butter left.         | 15. There aren't any eggs left.          |
| 8. There is no butter left.             | 16. There are no eggs left.              |